Documentation

Dear friends and colleagues,

We have the pleasure of inviting you to participate in the 32nd meeting of the European Coordination Committee on Human Rights Documentation (ECCHRD). This meeting brings together persons working on documentation, information and communication within human rights organisations and institutions.

The Open Society Archives (OSA) has kindly agreed to host this meeting, and it will take place in Budapest on 30 and 31 May.

1. Programme

The meeting will start on Monday 30 May at 9h30 and ends on Tuesday 31 May by 16h30. The agenda will include the following topics:

- Open source library management systems : Senayan SLIMS, OpenBiblio and Web Biblio, Koha, Greenstone, Evergreen, Invenio, Java ISIS. Tests and discussions.
- Ways of publishing data. Is there an alternative to pdf and how to build new infrastructures and new approaches to data publication.

The ECCHRD meeting is an excellent opportunity to present your work and projects, and find out what your colleagues are working on. There will be space for short presentations and also a Market place to present projects, tools and publications. There is also time for informal discussions and networking.
